Amy was a terrific professor, she brought enthusiasm to every session and helped to foster a great atmosphere for discussion and exchange of ideas. Amy had a unique ability to focus discussion and to involve several perspectives, consistently challenging our thinking and pushing us to engage with one another on a deeper level. Her intelligence, sharp wit, and comfortable demeanor made this course a real pleasure.

Amy Catalinac is a great professor. She's incredibly nice and easy to talk to and also very knowledgeable about the issue. She picks the readings very well and gives you a very manageable amount of reading so you can actually talk in depth about each piece and learn a lot from it.

Professor Catalinac was very enthusiastic, and you could tell she really wanted us to do well. One thing that she did really well was take our constructive criticism into account, for instance when we were finding it difficult to sit through a two hour class without a bathroom break, she added a five minute break in the middle.
