Dean’s Community Building Challenge

“Through our communities, we share experiences, develop relationships, interact with others, and work towards common goals. The greatest value of a strong community may be that it enables us to thrive while challenging us to realize our full potential.”

— Shirley Greene, Asst. Dean of Students

Dean Lambert honors his commitment to community by offering the first annual Dean’s Community Building Challenge.

Currently-enrolled students are encouraged to form a team and submit a proposal for a community building initiative for Spring 2017.

The winning team will receive a course tuition waiver for each team member!

To learn more and submit your proposal: http://goo.gl/Dr6hfA

Deadline for Proposals: January 30, 2017

Open to all currently-enrolled students. Each team must include two or more degree candidates and one or more distance student.

See submission form for full details.