

RESOURCES
FOR THE FUTURE

*The Board of Directors of Resources for the Future
Hereby records its sincere appreciation to*

Robert N. Stavins

For his participation as an elected member of the Board since 2003.

Whereas, the Board is grateful for his leadership and tireless advocacy for the importance of academically-rigorous, high-caliber research;

Whereas, he has been an effective ambassador for the institution across a broad community of scholars;

Whereas, his contributions to the field of environmental and resource economics are a model and inspiration to RFF scholars;

Whereas, he has been a teacher and mentor to a new generation of RFF fellows and extended family;

Whereas, the institution has benefited from his service, the Resources for the Future Board of Directors looks forward to his continued involvement as a University Fellow and consistent presence at all future home games of the Boston Red Sox.

Therefore, be it resolved that the Board expresses its deep appreciation to Robert N. Stavins.

Adopted, this 19th day, October 2012.
