COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course traces the evolution of western democratic theory from the ancient Greeks to the present, with particular emphasis on the institutions that influenced and were in turn influenced by these evolving theories. The readings run from Aristotle and Hobbes through Habermas and Foucault, with one foray into Islamic thought. The course has two aims: to foster an appreciation of the history behind the ideas that shaped today's democracies and to pose critical normative questions for today.

CLASS SCHEDULE:

Thursday Jan. 29: Introduction to theories of democracy.
No reading.

Tuesday Feb. 3: The demos of Ancient Greece
Reading:
