

Bradley E. Holland

CONTACT INFORMATION Department of Government 608-385-8676
Harvard University bholland@fas.harvard.edu
1737 Cambridge St.
Cambridge, MA 02138

EDUCATION Harvard University, Cambridge, MA
Ph.D. (Expected: May 2015), A.M. (Nov. 2009), Government
Dissertation: “Pariahs and Protectors: Illicit Drug Markets, Order, and Property Rights”
Advisors: Steven Levitsky (chair), Jorge Dominguez, Jennifer Hochschild

University of Wisconsin-Madison, Madison, WI
B.A. (Dec. 2006), Political Science and East Asian Studies
Graduated with distinction

WORKING PAPERS “Informally Governing Information: Rivalry leads to Violence against the Press in Mexico” (with Viridiana Rios). Revise and resubmit at Journal of Conflict Resolution
“Institutionalized Vengeance Killing: Private Violence and Public Order in Tokugawa Japan” (with Chika Ogawa) “Drugs, Gangs, and the Political Economy of Ethnic Targeting in Southern California”

WORK IN PROGRESS “Criminal Organizations, Informal Taxation, and Property Rights in Michoacán, Mexico”
“Gang Territory and Social Order in Chicago”

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS “Order, Elite Mobility, and Institutionalized Vengeance Killing in Tokugawa Japan” (with Chika Ogawa). Berkeley Japan Studies Graduate Conference,
Berkeley, CA. 2014
“Criminal Organizations, Violence, and the Informal Governance of the Press in Mexico” (with Viridiana Rios). Midwest Political Science Association Conference, Chicago, IL. 2014
“Institutionalized Vengeance Killing and the State in Tokugawa Japan”
(with Chika Ogawa). Midwest Political Science Association Conference,
Chicago, IL. 2014

“Criminal Organizations and the Assassination of Journalists in Mexico.”
Latin American Studies Association International Congress, Washington, D.C. 2013

GRANTS AND FELLOWSHIPS Dissertation Completion Fellowship, Harvard University GSAS. 2014-2015

Summer Research Grant, David Rockefeller Center for Latin American Studies. 2012, 2013, 2014

Frederick Sheldon Traveling Fellowship, Harvard University. 2012-2013

Pre-dissertation Grant, Weatherhead Center for International Studies. 2012

TEACHING AND ADVISING Senior Honors Thesis Advisor for Harvard Social Studies Department, Fernando Espino. Spring 2014-Spring 2015

Senior Honors Thesis Advisor for Harvard Government Department, Luciana Milano. Summer 2013-Spring 2014

Teaching Fellow, Harvard Government 99 (Senior Thesis Writers’ Tutorial). Fall 2012-Spring 2012, Fall 2013-Spring 2014

Teaching Assistant, Harvard Economics E-1600 (Economics of Business). Fall 2013, Spring 2014

Teaching Fellow, Harvard Du Bois Society (College seminars for minority secondary school students). Fall 2013

Teaching Fellow, Harvard Government 20 (Foundations of Comparative Politics). Fall 2009, Fall 2011, Fall 2013

Teaching Fellow, Harvard Government 97 (Sophomore Tutorial: Democracy). Spring 2010, Spring 2012

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS American Political Science Association
Midwest Political Science Association
Latin American Studies Association

ADDITIONAL SKILLS Spanish: Intermediate conversational (with advanced reading)
Japanese: Intermediate conversational (with basic reading)
Office Applications: Microsoft Office, L^AT_EX
Statistical Packages: R, Stata
Other: ArcGIS (software for GIS data)