<td>M/W/F, 9:00 – 9:50 a.m.</td>
<td>This course offers an introduction to the history of Western political ideas from Hobbes to Rawls. Close readings of the canon allow us to discuss enduring questions regarding freedom, equality, legitimacy, political economy, and liberalism. Particular attention is paid to the development of political liberalism by thinkers such as Hobbes, Locke, Rousseau, Kant, and Mill, as well as the radical critiques of liberalism advanced by traditionalism, socialism, feminism, and critical race theory. The course concludes with a look at the continuing impact of these canonical thinkers on contemporary political thought.</td>

Attendance and active participation are expected. Absences may be excused with a medical note or by prior permission of the instructor. After three absences, excused or unexcused, every subsequent unexcused absence will result in a 1/3-letter-grade drop in your attendance grade. I count two instances of lateness as one absence.

Late papers are penalized 1/3 of a letter grade per day late. (1/3 = A → A-)

CLASSROOM POLICY

No electronics in class. You are expected to bring hard copies of the course texts with you to class.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY POLICY

Dishonesty of any kind will not be tolerated in this course. Dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarizing, fabricating information or citations, facilitating acts of academic dishonesty by others, etc. The consequence for academic dishonesty is failure of the specific assignment, or (if a repeat offense) the course as a whole. Disciplinary procedures may also be initiated as outlined in the sections on Academic Standards, Cheating, and Plagiarism in the Code of Student Conduct in the University Undergraduate Catalog.
