“Pack” (concentrate) blue voters into a few districts. Each district should contain a total of four to six voters.
“Crack” (spread out) red voters across many districts. Each district should contain a total of four to six voters.