On January 23, 1978 the United States, amicus curiae herein, filed a motion to extend the time for filing its brief until January 30, 1978. Since that time the attorney on the case has been bedridden with tonsillitis. Thus, for the reasons stated in its January 23 motion and because of the sickness of the attorney assigned to this case, the United States hereby requests a further extension, until February 7, 1978, to file its brief.

Respectfully submitted,
