

JAMES FARMER, RANDY WESTON

TO APPEAR AT CORE BENEFIT

James Farmer, National Director of CORE, and the Randy Weston Sextet will be featured at an informal benefit concert for CORE from 4:00 to 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, May 23, 1965, at 20 West 10th Street in Manhattan.

Mr. Farmer, who will speak at approximately 6:00 p.m., will comment on his recent African trip and the current situation in the U. S. civil rights struggle.

The sextet will appear both before and after Mr. Farmer's talk, and will perform a number of Mr. Weston's recent compositions for the first time.

Members of the sextet, in addition to Mr. Weston on piano, are Ray Copeland, trumpet and fluegelhorn; Frank Haynes, tenor sax; Bill Wood, bass; Lenny McBrowne, drums; and Big Blake, conga drums.

For further information, call either OR 3-1590 or OR 4-2227.
