Past

2002-2003 Back to Work: Trends in Post-Retirement Employment

UM03-15/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner)

Project Leader ($50,000)

The goal of this research is to analyze trends in labor market re-entry after retirement

2003-2006 The Economic Cost of Joint Retirement

NIA/R03AG023108

PI ($154,776)

The goal of this research is to explore the retirement ages of married and single women and simulate the costs of foregone earnings, pension accruals, and savings of married women who tend to retire at a younger age than their husbands.

2004-2009 Economic and Health Determinants of Retirement Behavior

NIA/P01AG022481 (Kapteyn)

Co-Investigator ($1,037,558)

The major goals of this P01 are to analyze economic and health determinants of retirement behavior, such as wealth accumulation, disability application, and joint retirement.

2005-2008 Delayed Health Care Among the Near-Elderly

NIA/R03AG025155

PI ($122,199)

The goal of this research is to examine the measured increases in health care utilization at age 65 and whether this increase represents strategic delay in the timing of health care services

2005-2009 Self-Employment at Older Ages

NIA/R01AG025552 (Karoly) Co-Investigator ($152,051)

The major goal of this project is to analyze transitions by older individuals to and from self-employment.

2005-2006 Rising Economic Risk and the Labor Supply of Older Workers

UM06-21/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader ($50,000)

The major goal of this project is to study whether returning to work is a viable option for retired individuals who experience consumption shocks.

2006-2009 Impact of Medicare on Utilization and Health Disparities

NIA/R01AG026290 (Card) Co-Investigator ($675,000)

The goal of this research is to analyze whether the Medicare program mitigates or exacerbates disparities in health care utilization, treatment intensity, and health outcomes.

2006-2007 A Model of Unretirement

UM07-03/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader ($75,000)

This project develops a theoretical model of retirement and re-entry decisions and uses this framework to guide analyses of reduced form relationships.

2006-2007 A Cross-National Comparison of Self-Employment Dynamics at Older Ages

UM07-18/ Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader with Zissimopoulos ($100,000)

The major goal of the project is to compare the retirement patterns of self-employed older workers in the U.S. and U.K., focusing on institutional difference in retirement incentives.

2007-2009 Stated Preferences for Collective Household Labor Supply Models

NIA/Competing Supplement to 1 P01 AG022481-01 (Kapteyn)

Co-Investigator ($455,878)

The purpose of this project is to expand the scope for identification in collective household models of retirement by collecting innovation survey data on stated preferences (SP) for different retirement scenarios.

2007-2010 The Effect of Peer Groups on the Employment Outcomes of Young Adults NICHD/R03HD054417

PI ($187,744)

The goal of this research is to study how the race and gender composition of peers and superiors affects performance outcomes. We use personnel data from the U.S. Army, where individuals are randomly assigned to groups conditional upon a defined set of observable characteristics.

2007-2008 Labor Supply Effects of the Interaction between Social Security Disability and Retirement Benefits

UM08-13/ Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader ($75,000)

The goal of this research is to examine how an abrupt relaxation in the implicit tax on work affects the labor force participation of individuals on DI.

2007-2008 Are Early Retirees Less Healthy? The Role of Health in Social Security Claiming Decisions

UM08-21/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader ($50,000)

The goal of this research is to examine how the probability of claiming early retirement benefits at age 62 varies with different pre-retirement health trajectories, and to investigate spillover effects of the increase in the Social Security full retirement age on SSDI applications.

2009-2010 Research Design to Estimate Induced Entry into the SSDI Program Resulting from a Proposed Program Policy Change (Benefit Offset)

SS00-09-31428/Social Security Administration

PI ($393,885)

This task order contract develops a set of research design options for evaluating the effect of a change in the Social Security Disability Insurance program's implicit tax on earnings on program entry.

2009-2010 The Labor Supply Effects of Disability Insurance Work Disincentives: Evidence from Administrative Data

UM10-01/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader ($50,000)

This project examines whether the SSDI work disincentives are binding using a quasi-experimental research design and SSA Administrative Data.

2009-2010 Consistency of the Disability Determination Process and Labor Supply Outcomes UM10-04/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader with Mullen ($100,000)

In this project, we examine variation in the SSDI award rate and subsequent labor supply outcomes of applicants.

2010-2011 What Are the Real Application Costs of SSDI? The Effect of Waiting Time on Labor Force Participation and Earnings

UM11-01/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Co-Investigator ($75,000)

Using a unique administrative workload database, we evaluate how the substantial time spent out of the labor market during the application and appeals process affects subsequent employment opportunities and earnings of disability applicants.

2010-2011 Induced Entry into the SSDI Program: Using SGA Changes as a Natural Experiment

UM11-Q1/Michigan Retirement Research Center

Co-Investigator ($75,000)

This project examines the effect of changes in the threshold for substantial gainful activity (SGA) on SSDI applications over time and across states.

2010-2013 Labor Market Shocks and the Timing of Social Security Benefit claims

UM11-14/ Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader with Card ($100,000)

The project analyzes the effect of recent labor market shocks on the decision to claim Social Security retirement and disability benefits.

2011-2012 SSDI and Healthcare Reform: Evidence from Massachusetts

UM12-17/ Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader ($100,000)

This study examines the effect of the health care reform in Massachusetts in 2006 on applications for disability benefits.

2011-2012 Does Disability Insurance Save Lives?

UM12-18/ Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Co-Investigator ($75,000)

Using a unique administrative workload database, we evaluate the effect of Social Security Disability Insurance benefit receipt on mortality outcomes using exogenous variation in benefit receipt.

2011-2013 Pathways from Disability Onset to Retirement: The Roles of Employer Accommodation and Health Insurance

2011-3-17/Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

PI ($609,511)

Using data from the Health and Retirement Study (HRS), this project examines how employer accommodation of work disabilities and provision of health insurance affect labor force participation of older disabled workers.

2011-2018 Universal Health Insurance and the Adequacy and Efficiency of Health Care

NIA/ R01AG026290 (Card)

Co-Investigator ($1,200,000)

This project will measure how the availability of nearly universal health insurance for those over 65 affects the use of primary care versus Emergency Department services; the quality of health care services provided outside the hospital, and the treatment intensity and health outcomes of people admitted to the hospital for acute myocardial infarction.

2012-2014 The Effect of Labor Demand on Work and Retirement Outcomes

2012-3-18/Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

PI ($544,638)

This project examines the effect of labor demand on work and retirement outcomes using the Health and Retirement Study linked to local labor marker data.

2013-2014 Effects of SSDI Application Processing Times and Receipt on Labor Supply and Earnings NB14-10/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Wise)

Project Leader with Autor and Mullen ($100,974)

This project will test whether long SSDI application processing times cause disability applicants to lose workforce-related human capital.

2013-2021 Human Capital of Disabled Workers

NIA/R01AG046290

PI ($2,806,341)

This project will produce the best estimates to date of the latent work capacity of disabled workers overall, and of older workers specifically. 2014-2015 How Effective is Workplace Accommodation in Keeping Disabled Workers on the Job? NB15-07/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Wise) Co-Investigator (~$75,000) This project will analyze new data about the need for and provision of workplace accommodation to workers experiencing health problems. 2014-2015 Working Conditions over the Life Course UM15-03/Social Security Administration/Michigan Retirement Research Center (Laitner) Project Leader with Mullen ($119,800) This grant funds data collection on working conditions using the RAND American Life Panel. 2014-2018 Sustainable Work Conditions and Employment of Older Workers 2013-10-21/Alfred P. Sloan Foundation PI with von Wachter ($1,120,309) The overarching goal of this project is to advance knowledge about actual and desired job characteristics and how these characteristics affect the likelihood of employment at older ages. 2015-2019 Technological Change, Training and Employment of Older Workers 2015-13870 PI ($441,606) The goal of this project is to advance knowledge on how technological change affects older works and on the role of training in modifying those effects. 2015-2017 The Effect of the Great Recession on the Flow of SSDI Claims to ALJ's NB16-16/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Wise) Project Leader with Mullen (~$120,000) This project will estimate the effect of the Great Recession on the rate of appeal to the hearings level and subsequent case outcomes. 2016-2018 Geographic Variation in SSDI Receipt: The Role of Claimants' Representatives, Part II NB17-18/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Autor/Maestas) Project Leader with Hoynes ($37,763) This project will analyze spatial patterns of legal representation in SSDI claims and the effect of representation on case outcomes. 2016-2018 Disability Insurance and Treatment for Pain NB17-15/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Autor/Maestas) Project Leader ($55,158) This project aims to estimate the fraction of disability insurance recipients who initiated opioid therapy to treat chronic prior to applying for disability benefits. 2017-2019 The Effects of Medicaid Policy on the Health Care Utilization and Health of SSI Beneficiaries NB18-13/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Maestas) Project Leader with Layton (~$50,000) This project examines whether the shift to Medicaid Managed Care for SSI beneficiaries led to beneficial changes in utilization, health, and health care spending.

2017-2019 NBER Disability Research Center

Social Security Administration (SSA)/DRC12000002 (Maestas)

PI ($1,737,486 Year 5)

The Center conducts research that can inform disability policy evaluation and reform. As PI of the Center, I oversee approximately 15 research projects per year conducted by researchers at universities in the US and Europe. The Center also provides training fellowships to predoctoral and postdoctoral scholars.

2017-2020 Preferences for Working Conditions and Employment at Older Ages

G-2017-9694

Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

PI ($657,748)

The goal of this project is to understand how preferences for working conditions at older ages influence the length of working lives.

2018-2019 Employer Incentives in Disability Insurance: Evidence from Social Security Administration

NB18-Q10/Social Security Administration/NBER Disability Research Center (Maestas) Project Leader (~$50,000)

The purpose of this project is to examine variation across firms in disability claiming by former employees.

2018-2020 Causes and Consequences of Geographic Variation in Healthcare Spending for Individuals with Disabilities

NB19-24/Social Security Administration/NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center (Maestas)

Project Leader with Layton/Shepard (~$50,000)

This project will investigate the sources of difference in Medicaid generosity across states and how these differences affect the health outcomes of people with disabilities.

2019-2021 Estimating Work-Related Functional Capacity among Older Americans

Harvard Medical School, Dean's Initiative Grants Program, Innovation Pilot Award in Healthy Aging (Maestas)

PI ($230,000)

This project will collect new survey data from a nationally representative sample of Americans that measures their functional capacity to work across eight functional domains.

2019-2021 Exploration of an Alternative Disclosure Approach for SSA Statistics

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/NB20-12 (Maestas)

Project Leader with John Friedman (~$80,000 Total)

This project seeks to understand how a new method for reducing privacy loss when disclosing statistics based on small numbers of observations would work in the SSA setting.

2019-2022 Opioid Prescribing Practices in Adolescents and State Policies

NIA-RAND/P50 DA046351 (Sherry)

Co-Investigator ($40,529 Total)

The goals of this project are to examine what share of opioid prescriptions among adolescents and young adults lack a documented medical indication for pain, and examine how this practice varies by patient, provider, and practice setting, and state policies.

2020-2021 Applying Disability Determination Methods from the Netherlands in the US

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/ NB21-08 (Maestas)

Project Leader with Mullen/Ravesteijn ($40,968 Total)

This project aims to provide a detailed review of the disability determination procedure used in the Netherlands to identify specific jobs applicants have the functional ability to perform.

2016-2022 Health and Disability over the Life Course

NIA/R01AG056238

PI ($440,001)

This project will investigate the health and work capacity of individuals with moderate and severe health problems, examining how work capacity varies with characteristics of the disability and in relation to economic conditions over time, using administrative and survey data.

2016-2022 Disability Among Older Low-Skilled Workers

NIA/R01AG056239

PI ($395,000)

This project will investigate the health and work abilities of low-skilled, older individuals with moderate health problems, by education and work history, and in relation to economic conditions over time, using administrative and survey data.

2018-2023 NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center (RDRC)

Social Security Administration (SSA)/1-RDR18000003 (Maestas)

PI ($3,317,253 Year 1)

The Center conducts research that contributes to the scientific basis for retirement and disability policy design. As PI of the Center, I oversee approximately 25 research projects per year conducted by researchers at universities in the US and Europe. The Center also provides training fellowships to predoctoral and postdoctoral scholars.

The Effect of Health Insurance Affordability on the Employment of People with Disabilities

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/NB21-13 (Maestas)

Project Leader with Ari Ne'eman (~$80,382 Total)

This project will investigate the role of health insurance affordability as a potential explanation for the increase in labor supply among people with disabilities (pre-pandemic).

2020-2023 Understanding Variation in Occupational Requirements

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/ NB21-07 (Maestas)

Project Leader with Mullen/Sherry ($40,968 Total)

The goal of this project is to characterize the variation in functional requirements within occupations.

2020-2023 Measuring Geographic Variation in Utilization of Long-term Services and Supports Among Supplemental Security Income Recipients

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/NB21-12 (Maestas)

Project Leader with Layton/Shepard (~$50,000 Total)

This project will construct a novel dataset tracking LTSS utilization by SSI recipients, and document geographic variation in health, use of LTSS services, and functional status.

2022-2023 Reform of the Disability Determination Process at the Hearing Level and Employment After Application

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/NB23-19 (Maestas)

Project Leader w/ Hoynes ($151,860 Total)

This project will investigate the impacts of the several policy initiatives launched by the Social Security Administration to improve the quality and consistency of disability case reviews performed by Administrative Law Judges.

2022-2023 Expanding Research Capacity at Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs)

SSA-NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center/NB23-1 (Maestas)

Project Leader w/ Viceisza ($62,824 Total)

This project will seek to strengthen, expand, and build the capacity for conducting research on retirement and disability policy at HBCUs.

Current

2018-2024 Improving Health Outcomes for an Aging Population (P01)/Opioid Treatment for Pain:

Causes and Consequences (Project 2)

NIA/P01AG005842 (Baicker)

Project Leader, Project 2 (~$360,000)

This project seeks to understand the causes of rising opioid treatment for pain and its effect on the health and functional outcomes of middle-aged and older Americans.

2020-2025 Improving Medicare in an Era of Change (P01)/ Lessons for Medicare from State Medicaid

Programs: The Laboratory of Democracy (Project 3)

NIA/P01AG032952 (Landon and McWilliams)

Co-Investigator, Project 3 ($171,839)

This project estimates causal differences in care quality and health outcomes between Medicaid and Medicare, then leverages heterogeneity in Medicare-Medicaid differences across states to determine which Medicaid policies are responsible for beneficial outcomes.

2020-2023 HealthCare Markets and Regulation Lab

Arnold Foundation 20-04402 (Chernew)

Co-Investigator ($2,665,646)

The objective of this project is to provide the critical evidence, analyses, and tools necessary to support private and public sector innovations that promote high quality health care at a sustainable cost.

2020-2025 Disability-Inclusive Employment Policy Research and Resource Training Center (RRTC)

NIDILRR/ACL-Syracuse University (Blanck)

Co-PI ($909,157 Total)

This center grant encompasses an array of projects designed to test the effect of various employment policies on the employment of people with disabilities.

2022-2027 Assessment of Health-Related Work Capacity to Improve Independence of Older Adults NIA/2R01AG046290

M-PI ($3,142,170 Total)

This project develops a new way of measuring functional abilities that enables direct comparison with occupational requirements. We use the new measures to identify whether it is possible to design interventions to restore lost work capacity to individuals whose functional abilities have declined.

2023-2028 Identifying Targets for Interventions to Improve Functional Ability to Work over the Life Course NIA/1R01AG078301

M-PI ($4,106,404 Total)

The goal of this project is to adapt international methods for measuring functional ability to work to the U.S. context and use this information to identify targets for interventions that would restore or prevent loss of specific functional abilities among Americans.

2023-2028 NBER Retirement and Disability Research Center (RDRC)

Social Security Administration (SSA)/1-RDR23000006-01-00 (Maestas)

PI ($1,989,509 Direct Year 1)

The Center conducts research that contributes to the scientific basis for retirement and disability policy design. As PI of the Center, I oversee approximately 25 research projects per year conducted by researchers at universities in the US and Europe. The Center also provides training fellowships to predoctoral and postdoctoral scholars (also listed below).

Training Grants and Mentored Trainee Grants

2010-2015 RAND Postdoctoral Training Program in the Study of Aging Years 18-22

NIA/T32 AG000244

PI/Faculty

This program provided research training in aging to postdoctoral fellows.

2013-2018 RAND Mini-Medical School for Social Scientists for Years 13-17

NIA/R13 AG018327 (13-17)

PI/Conference Organizer

This conference grant provided funding for the Mini-Medical School for Social Scientists, a two-day summer workshop that was part of the RAND Summer Institute. The workshop consisted of master lectures delivered by leading biomedical scientists to approximately 40 competitively selected, promising junior scholars in the field of aging.

2018-2021 National Bureau of Economic Research Post-Doctoral Fellowship Program on the

Economics of an Aging Workforce

Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

PI/Faculty

This program provides postdoctoral fellowships to junior faculty studying the labor market consequences of an aging population. I am program director and faculty mentor.

2019-2023 Health Policy Training Program: Promoting Outcomes, Quality, and Diffusion of Medical Advances
